

Move Toward The Light

Why is that in times of darkness I move toward the light? (Jane Katz)

Kimchi Hoang

Spirito

(♩=78)

There are long nights When my eyes can on-ly stare___ at the ceil-ing___

— My brea-thing hea - vy As if car - ry - ing___ e-ve-ry sor-row in-to this small room___ I sit count - ing the dried paint flecks on my sleeve___ Won - de - ring to my - self Where have I lost my way Why is that in times of dark-ness I move toward the light?___ Why is that in times of dark-ness I move toward the light? Could it be that eve - ry brush stroke shim - me - ring___ with co - lor___ Every note___

Move Toward The Light

42

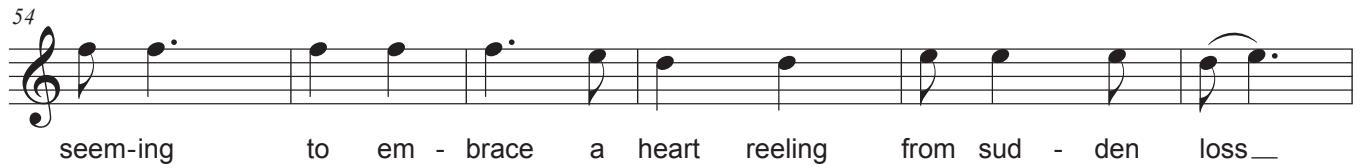

wea - ving a me - lo - dy of love and you sit - ting there in qui - et still - ness Yet ra - diating such warmth That eve - ry - thing

48

54

seem - ing to em - brace a heart reeling from sud - den loss

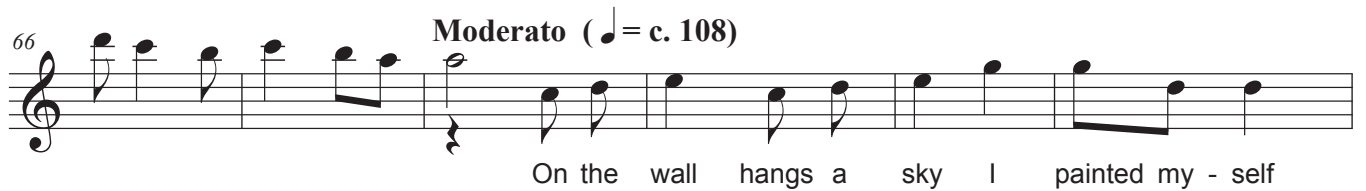

60

Is what pulled me back from the abyss?

66

Moderato (♩ = c. 108)

On the wall hangs a sky I painted my - self 72

na - me - less faces gaze back at me with pa - tient eyes A soft sing - ing

78

drifts through the win - dow crack Gra - dual - ly dis - pel - ling the scent of wea - ri - ness

84

cling - ing to the house Per - haps the light is 90

(♩ = 98)

sim - ply the way you speak my name a - midst the cha - o - tic 96 poco rall.

rhy - thm of my bea-ting heart Your voice tells me It's o - kay just 102 Allegro (♩ = ca. 120)

take one more deep breath _____ Why is that in times of dark-ness

108

I move toward the light Why is that in times of dark-ness I move toward the light

114

120 Moderato (♩ = c. 108)

Because eve - ry brush-stroke pull-ed me from the a-byss Eve-ry me-lo - dy embraces my reel-ing heart And you gen-tly tou-ching my sor-row Becom - ing a slen-der thread

126

131

of light lead-ing me toward a brand - new day _____ ho ho ho _____

137

_____ ho ho ho _____